

God has revealed Himself to humankind in three ways:

1. God is Revealed in His _____ (vv. 1-6)

<sup>1</sup>The heavens are telling of the glory of God; And their expanse is declaring the work of His hands.

<sup>3</sup>There is no speech, nor are there words where their voice is not heard.

<sup>4</sup>Their line has gone out through all the earth, And their utterances to the end of the world. In them He has placed a tent for the sun,

<sup>5</sup>Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber; It rejoices as a strong man to run his course.

<sup>6</sup>Its rising is from one end of the heavens, And its circuit to the other end of them; And there is nothing hidden from its heat (Psalm 19:1-6).

Supporting passages . . .

- "Lift up your eyes on high And see who has created these stars, The One who leads forth their host by number, He calls them all by name; Because of the greatness of His might and the strength of His power, Not one of them is missing" (Isaiah 40:26).
- "For by Him all things were created, both in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities -- all things have been created through Him and for Him. And He is before all things, and in Him all things hold together" (Colossians 1:16-17).
- "For since the creation of the world [God's] invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse" (Romans 1:20).

- "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth" (Genesis 1:1).
- "Then God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of the heavens to separate the day from the night, and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years; and let them be for lights in the expanse of the heavens to give light on the earth"; and it was so" (Genesis 1:14-15).

2. God is Revealed in His _____ (vv. 7-11)

<sup>7</sup>The law of the Lord is perfect, restoring the soul; The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple.

<sup>8</sup>The precepts of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes.

<sup>9</sup>The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; The judgments of the Lord are true; they are righteous altogether.

<sup>10</sup>They are more desirable than gold, yes, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the drippings of the honeycomb.

<sup>11</sup>Moreover, by them Your servant is warned; In keeping them there is great reward (Psalm 19:7-11).

- "You have magnified Your word according to all Your name" (Psalm 138:2).
- "We were eyewitnesses of Christ's majesty. For when He received honor and glory from God the Father . . . we ourselves heard this utterance made from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain. But we have the prophetic word which is more sure, to which you do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place . . ." (2 Peter 1:16b, 18-19).
- "For the word of God is living and active and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing as far as the division of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart" (Hebrews 4:12).
- "All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for training in righteousness; so that the man of God may be adequate, equipped for every good work" (2 Timothy 3:16-17).
- "Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God" (Matthew 4:4b).

3. God is Revealed in His _____ (vv. 12-14)

<sup>12</sup>Who can discern his errors? Acquit me of hidden faults.

<sup>13</sup>Also keep back Your servant from presumptuous sins; Let them not rule over me; Then I will be blameless, And I shall be acquitted of great transgression.

<sup>14</sup>Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be acceptable in Your sight, O Lord, my rock and my Redeemer (Psalm 19:12-14).

- "Blessed are those who mourn" (Matthew 5:4).

Application Questions

- Do you have a scientific mind? Do facts and figures about the universe impress you? How can you learn to dwell, instead, on the Creator of the universe?
- Does the size of God's creation make you feel small? How can you daily remind yourself that you are not the center of the universe? How can you daily remind yourself that God exists outside of time and space?
- How have you typically listened to God? Do you run to nature, or do you run to the Word of God?
- What new understandings about the Word of God come to you as you reflect on its six titles, six descriptions, and six actions? How do your new understandings change the way you appreciate the Bible?
- Can you honestly say that God's Word is more valuable to you than gold and sweeter to you than honey?
- What changes can you make to your daily routines that will practically show that you love God's written Word more than money or comforts?
- What hidden faults can you identify in your life that you've previously overlooked? Confess these now.
- What deliberate sins do you continue to pursue? Confess these now in prayer. Ask God for help. Then ask a Christian friend to help you master them.
- Have you ever prayed through Psalm 19 personalizing it to your own life? Try doing it now. What did God reveal to you about Himself and about you?
